

Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC) and You

The Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC), established in 1994, is a not-for-profit specializing in access to applications and the utilization of videoconferencing for live interactive content and professional development, as well as web-based collaborative learning environments for K-20. CILC provides consulting expertise in videoconferencing, integration, problem based learning projects, school community partnerships and effective techniques for the delivery and development of quality programs.

To take full advantage of the riches this technology brings to the classroom, improve teacher expertise and ultimately student achievement while saving time and money visit www.cilc.org to:

Explore Educational Content

CILC partners with nearly 200 national and international content providers offering over 1,300 teacher evaluated standards based K-12 programs in a searchable data base.

Access Professional Development Programs
Over 55 quality staff developers provide training through videoconferencing, webinars and other collaborative technologies.

Check Out Spotlight Sessions

These free, live professional development sessions, offered via webinar, cover a variety of topics relevant to today's classroom.

Review Consulting and Application Options
CILC offers individual workshops and consulting packages to help you learn about best practice implementation models and how to maximize your investment in technology.

Consulting services have been provided to 43 states in the USA, Africa, Canada, England, Honduras, Ireland, Saudi Arabia and Wales.

Investigate a Content Dollar Bank

Set up a Content Dollar Bank to eliminate payment of multiple bills. Oversee and approve your content programming while CILC manages your videoconferencing expenditures. It's a great solution for preferred vendor policies and for using your grant and funding dollars.

Search for:

Collaborations - Post and search collaborative learning opportunities to engage students in active learning exchange.

Academic Classes - Search available academic classes. If you don't find the class(es) you need, you may post a request.

Videoconferencing Directories - Search directories of content providers, professional development providers and videoconferencing sites.
